Shareholder Oppression Suit Settles for $8.2 Million

After being sued on weak claims, the defendant retained Mantese Honigman, PC, who filed a counterclaim alleging that the plaintiff/counter-defendant had committed ongoing and egregious shareholder oppression. Mantese Honigman quickly secured a forensic analysis confirming the counter-defendants' misuse of company funds and sought damages and other remedies. After intense litigation including dispositive motions, counter-plaintiff secured a settlement of $8.2 Million.
