

MANTESE HONIGMAN, PC OPENS LAW FIRM IN MIAMI, FLORIDA

Mantese Honigman, PC, a national law firm focusing on shareholder and member disputes, real estate issues, and complex business litigation, is pleased to announce the opening of an office in Miami. Firm CEO Gerard Mantese, a member of Florida's Bar, has close ties to south Florida and will lead the firm's Miami office.

Mr. Mantese commented, "Opening an office in Miami will allow our firm to continue its representation of business owners by expanding our footprint in Florida and beyond."

Mantese Honigman, PC handles complex business litigation in courts across the United States, with an emphasis on business breakups. Mr. Mantese and his partners, Dave Honigman, Ian Williamson, Theresamarie Mantese, Doug Toering, Terry Osgood, Kate Eisenstein, Emily Fields and Michael Butterfield have recovered over $1 Billion for their clients and have handled many precedent setting shareholder/member oppression and fiduciary duty cases.

The new office is at 951 NE 83rd St., Miami, FL 33138. The firm also maintains offices in Metro Detroit, Grand Rapids, New York City, & St. Louis.

Florida (305) 859-3440
Detroit (248) 457-9200
W. Mich. (616) 358-4150
New York (212) 401-4008
Missouri (314) 656-6927

www.manteselaw.com